

Latin GCSE

Component 1: Language (50%)

Wednesday 17th May 2023

Revision recap!

Worksheets on 'sum' and 'possum' from Chapter 3

sum and possum

Write out the present tense of the verb “to be” in full (6).

| | |
|----------------------|--|
| I am | |
| You (sg.) are | |
| He/she/it is | |
| We are | |
| You (pl) are | |
| They are | |

Now look up the verb table and revise the imperfect tense endings

Ext: what do we mean by a ‘compound of the verb to be’?

Translate these Latin forms into English:

1. eram

2. possumus

3. potest

4. possunt

5. poteratis

6. erant

Grammar

Cross out the two parts of the verb “to sleep” that do not belong in this short sentence and then translate what you have left:

dormio/dormire/dormivi non poteram.

Translate these English forms into Latin:

7. I can

8. He was

9. you (sg.) were able

10. you (pl.) can

Give one derivative of "possum" and explain what it means (2)

| Derivative | Meaning |
|-------------------|----------------|
| | |

Personal Pronouns

Page 124 Ex 4.38, 4.39

Study Guides now on the website!

www.cflatin.weebly.com

Homework - Ex 4.40 (end of Chapter 4!) and Chapter 4 vocabulary